

October

11

A striking collection of lounge furniture that suits the interiors of hotels, guest houses and law offices. Hilary Birkbeck's designs are made for retro spaces, but with their quilted cushions and solid wood base, they will also enhance modern, eclectic offices. A large number of elements that the collection consists of allows you to create a variety of arrangements.

Collection features:

- rich colours of finishes
- possibility to use wooden legs
- quilted cushions on the seat and backrest, finished with buttons
- coffee tables come in two sizes, with a choice of two types of tops (wooden or wooden with glass insert)
